

VIEW THE ORGANISATION CHART HERE

Brian Boulus, Managing Director: Founding Boulus Constructions in 1989 after becoming accredited in Clerk of Works, Brian went on to develop the company to become a highly successful select Tender Construction Organisation, recognised in the New England region for its prestigious and modern construction and attention to client and employee satisfaction. Brian has a diploma in management and diploma in business.

Terri Boulus, Director and Compliance Manager: is the second member of the company together with Brian and is an experienced administrator and Compliance Manager compiling over 15 years experience in the retail and construction industries. She is a certified professional in OH&S qualified to implement procedures and policies within the company to ensure growth and effective review and reform. Terri has a diploma in management and diploma in business.

Sai Giridhar Abbaraju, a member of CPA Australia, Finance Administrator / Office Manager: worked in various industries, including construction in the Middle East in the fields of Management accounting, finance and management consultancy with over 20 years experience (of which over 10 years in Construction industry in management accounting, finance and HR). He has excellent knowledge of Risk assessment and internal controls, budgeting and forecasting apart from financial and general administration.

Nicholas Boulus, Tendering Officer: has been working in construction industry for the past 4 years in various capacities. He is currently involved in tendering activities of the company organising the quotes from subcontractors and material suppliers and compiling competitive tenders.

Thato Gordon, Contracts Administrator: worked in various capacities previously and has rich experience in Real Estate industry, is looking after the company's Contracts administration coordinating with various stakeholders for smooth execution of projects.