

We have an extensive relationship for the repairs and maintenance of Housing NSW properties and Teacher Housing. We have successfully delivered Maintenance Contracts for NSW Government which required the prompt services of quality tradespersons and customer service support.

Our capability has further increased with additional resources and greater infrastructure; with this our Company has successfully constructed new community housing projects for the demographic and unique demands of our community with innovative and easy maintenance properties that are environmentally friendly.

Boulus Constructions has had an extensive relationship for the repairs and maintenance of Housing NSW properties and Teacher Housing. We have successfully delivered Maintenance Contracts for NSW Government which required the prompt services of quality tradespersons and customer service support.

Our capability has further increased with additional resources and greater infrastructure; with this our Company has successfully constructed new community housing projects for the demographic and unique demands of our community with innovative and easy maintenance properties that are environmentally friendly.

Give us a call to know how we can help maintain your properties to long laster.